

Shelby Harvey, Ph. D., served as Director of Middle School Education for Pinellas County Schools as well a middle school principal, middle and high school assistant principal, dean, curriculum resource teacher, and teacher of English. She is a nationally certified trainer in Project CRISS (Creating Independence through Student-Owned Strategies), a content reading program recognized as an Exemplary Educational Program and validated as effective by the U. S. Department of Education and the Joint Dissemination Review Panel. She has also written and administered grants and edited texts on secondary reading, including CRISS for Administrators. She has taught graduate courses in educational leadership and curriculum and instruction and served as a speaker at local, state, and national conferences. She is currently a consultant in content reading, curriculum and instruction, and educational leadership.