

Darian Walker, Ph.D., is currently a consultant specializing in adolescent literacy and test preparation. She previously served in Pinellas County, Florida, as the Supervisor of Secondary Language Arts as well as a district resource teacher and a classroom language arts teacher. In addition, she has served on many state committees for curriculum, standards, and the Florida Comprehensive Assessment Test (FCAT) in the areas of reading and writing. She also served on advisory committees for reading and writing for the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) and was the Florida coordinator for the Student Achievement Awards in Writing for the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE). She served as the president of the Florida Council of Teachers of English (FCTE), the Pinellas Council of Teachers of English (PCTE), and the Florida Council of Language Arts Supervisors (CLAS).

Darian has also developed instructional material for literacy and test preparation in both print and video formats. In addition, she has written and reviewed test items for several state assessments; and she has worked with administrators, teachers, students, and parents to interpret test data, set goals, design appropriate instructional programs, and evaluate progress.
